Korean Cultural Festival at Pleasanton Library Gift of Korean Language Materials to Library

Pleasanton, CA—The City of Pleasanton is pleased to announce that the Tri-Valley Korean American Parents' Association is making a generous gift of Korean language materials to the library on Saturday, October 10, 2015 at 11:00 a.m. On the occasion of this gift of Korean language materials to the library's adult and children's collections, the Pleasanton Public Library and the Tri-Valley Korean American Parents' Association will also present a celebration of traditional and contemporary Korean culture, immediately following the ceremony until 3:00 p.m.

The Honorable Consul General of the Republic of Korea, Dongman Han, will formally present the gift of new library materials at 11:00 a.m. This will be followed in the main meeting room with examples of Korean dance, music, martial arts, and crafts. The celebration will conclude with an opportunity to sample various Korean foods, provided by the Tri-Valley Korean Parents Association and prepared by Korean Village of Pleasanton.

This program is free and is suitable for all ages. For information on this and other events, visit the library website at <http://www.ci.pleasanton.ca.us/services/library/> or call the library at (925) 931-3400. The Pleasanton Public Library is located at 400 Old Bernal Avenue, Pleasanton.

About Pleasanton

*The City of Pleasanton is a vibrant Northern California community of 71,000 residents situated at the crossroads of Interstates 580 and 680, in close proximity to the San Francisco and San Jose metropolitan areas. The city's location has historical significance as a major trading route of early Native Americans and later along the route of the First Transcontinental Railroad. Pleasanton is a major suburb identified by the U.S. Census as one of the wealthiest middle-sized cities in the nation and was included on Money Magazine's list of the 'Best Cities to Live 2014' and on 24/7 Wall Street's list of 'America's 50 Best Cities to Live'. Among Pleasanton's many attractions are an excellent school system, a highly educated workforce, 1,200 acres of parkland and recreational open space, a nationally recognized business park, a regional retail shopping mall, and a historic downtown district.
