POPULAR CHILDREN'S AUTHOR VISITS LIBRARY

Author and Illustrator Jon Agee Makes Special Appearance

PLEASANTON, Calif. — Popular picture book author and illustrator Jon Agee makes a special summer visit to the Pleasanton Library on Wednesday, July 6 at 10 a.m. The recipient of numerous national awards and “best of” designations, Mr. Agee comes to kick off a national book tour introducing his latest work, Lion Lessons.

Jon Agee has authored and illustrated over 30 well-loved books for children, including such titles as The Incredible Painting of Felix Clousseau, Milo's Hat Trick, and The Retired Kid. Reflecting a captivating fascination with language and wordplay, his books combine compelling art with a quirky, tongue-in-cheek sense of humor. His signature cartoon-like illustrations, clean graphic design and engaging characters have won him legions of fans among both children and adults.

No registration is required for this free event, which is best for children ages 5 and older. Co-sponsor Towne Center Books will have copies of Mr. Agee's books on hand for purchase and autographing. For more information about this and other children's library programs, visit the library website at: <http://www.cityofpleasantonca.gov/services/library/> or call the Children's Desk at (925) 931-3400 ext. 3.
