PARENTING AUTHOR TO PRESENT ON HOMEWORK STRATEGIES

Pleasanton, CA – The Community Education Series continues on Wednesday, November 16, 2016 with “Taming the Homework Monster at every age & stage” which is a workshop geared towards parents of students in grades K-8. The workshop will be presented by Susan Stone Belton, Parent Coach, Speaker and Author. It will be held from 7:00pm to 8:30pm in the large meeting room of the Pleasanton Public Library at 400 Old Bernal Avenue.

Belton will recommend homework strategies for at risk students, gifted students and everyone in between. She will help you understand how and when to help your child with homework. The event is FREE and registration is recommended. Go to pleasantonfun.com and enter course code #63583 or call 925-931-5359 to register. For information on this event and upcoming Community Education Series events, please visit ptownlife.org.

The Community Education Series was developed by the Community Services staff in conjunction with the Pleasanton Youth Commission to meet the goals of the Youth Master Plan. For more information, please email amcgovern@cityofpleasantonca.gov or call (925) 931-5359.

Susan Stone Belton is a certified Special Education Teacher who has spent decades working with children and families. She has presented hundreds of motivational talks to Bay Area groups, focusing on healthy communication and effective discipline for all ages. Through her private practice, Susan coaches individual families in their homes. Susan is the author of “Real Parents, Real Kids, Real Talk”, a book for parents with children of all ages, and is the proud mother of two young adults.
