HIKING IN DARK, WAITING FOR LIGHT: PHOTOS FROM PATAGONIA

PLEASANTON, Calif. — The Pleasanton Public Library is pleased to present a free workshop with Dianne Mao, a landscape photographer based in the San Francisco Bay Area. This workshop will take place in the large meeting room of the Pleasanton Public Library on Sunday, May 7, 2017 from 2 to 3 p.m.

As an avid traveler, Dianne was searching for her next adventure when a photography team invited her to join their month-long backpacking expedition to Patagonia. Famous for its rugged mountain peaks, dramatic skies and stunning glacial formations, Patagonia offers an unearthly atmosphere that attracts both adventure-seekers and photographers alike. Dianne and her team traveled by foot through the South American region, braving high winds, snow, heavy rain, and crossing through rivers, mountains and valleys to capture the beauty of the majestic landscape.

Join Dianne as she recounts her epic adventures as a vagabond photographer.

For more information, please call the Reference Desk at 925/931-3400, ext. 4. The library is located at 400 Old Bernal Avenue, Pleasanton.
