HENNA FOR TEENS AT PLEASANTON LIBRARY

Limited to First 25 Participants

PLEASANTON, Calif. — The Pleasanton Public Library is pleased to offer a free Henna art workshop for teens between the ages of 13 and 19 years old. This daylong program will take place on Thursday, July 20 between 3:30 and 5 p.m.

Henna is safe, natural and temporary body art that hails from the traditions of Africa, the Middle East and India. Participants will be able to choose their own henna design and learn how to apply it. Henna artist Rachel-Anne Palacios will be on hand to demonstrate its uses, as well as apply designs on each participant.

No registration is required, though tickets will be passed out beginning at 3:15 p.m. on July 20 to the first 25 participants. The workshop will be held in the large meeting room in the library, located at 400 Old Bernal Ave.
