Evading an Officer

On January 16, 2018 at 12:49 pm, a Pleasanton Police Officer observed a white Chevy Silverado truck driving erratically on First Street. The male driver, later identified as 55 year old Scott Hagan, was speeding and making unsafe turning movements.

The officer activated his emergency lights to initiate a traffic stop. Hagan exited the truck and advanced toward the officer in a threatening manner. After yelling threats at the officer, Hagan ran back into his truck and fled at a high rate of speed.

Another officer initiated a short vehicle pursuit which ended abruptly when Hagan drove to his former unoccupied residence, on Old Stanley Boulevard, and ran inside the basement. Officers attempted to communicate with Hagan who yelled at officers and refused to comply with orders to exit the basement.

After exhausting all attempts to communicate with Hagan, and believing he may be in crisis, Officers did not make entry and have sought a warrant for his arrest.
