Invasion of Privacy Arrest

On Saturday February 10, 2018, at around 4:08 p.m. officers were dispatched to Hollister Company inside the Stoneridge Shopping Center to investigate the report of unlawful recording inside a fitting room. Information provided to police conveyed that a camera was found concealed on a fitting room floor and recorded a customer while she tried on clothing. A male was observed exiting a nearby fitting room and was detained by store employees.

Juan Jose Martinez-Leyva (DOB 5/14/1972) was positively identified as the male seen exiting the fitting room and in possession of some recording devices containing footage of the victim. Martinez-Leyva was placed under citizen's arrest and later booked into the Santa Rita Jail for invasion of privacy. At this time it is unknown if there are any additional victims or locations of occurrence. If you have any information pertaining to this incident please contact us.
