PLEASANTON SEEKING VOLUNTEERS FOR CITY COMMISSIONS

Applications Being Accepted Through March 20, 2018

PLEASANTON, Calif. – The City of Pleasanton is seeking residents who are interested in participating in their community by serving on one of a variety of commissions and committees that oversee specific issue areas and make recommendations to the Council.

Recruitments occur two times a year, once in the spring and once in the fall. Terms vary for each of the commissions and committees, though are typically four-year terms with a two-term maximum, but applicants should look at the individual commission or committee for which they are applying to get specific details.

The Council is currently accepting applications through March 20, 2018 for the following commissions and committees:

Civic Arts Commission, Committee on Energy and the Environment, Economic Vitality Committee (categories include commercial real estate development, commercial real estate broker, financial services, and medical services), Human Services Commission, Library Commission, Parks and Recreation Commission, Planning Commission, Youth Commission (categories include high school, middle school and adult representatives).

Apply at <http://www.cityofpleasantonca.gov/gov/depts/clerk/boards/default.asp>

Applicants must reside within Pleasanton city limits (except Economic Vitality Committee).

Interviews will be held on March 26 and March 29, 2018. For additional information contact the Office of the City Clerk at 925-931-5027.
