Robbery and Carjacking

On February 8, 2019 at 10:41 a.m., Pleasanton police officers responded to a report of an armed robbery at Wells Fargo Bank, 4767 Hopyard Road. A responding officer observed the suspect vehicle, a white GMC Yukon, driving westbound on Inglewood Drive. At the intersection of Inglewood Drive at Hopyard Road, the suspects discharged a rifle at the officer's patrol vehicle through the rear window of the Yukon. The front windshield and hood of the patrol car were struck by rifle rounds, disabling the patrol vehicle.

At 10:57 a.m., the suspects carjacked a brown Honda CRV, license number 5USY995, at Muirwood Drive at Hillview Court. The suspects then fled the scene in the victim's vehicle on Muirwood Drive towards Springdale Avenue. The Yukon was abandoned at the scene of the carjacking. An area check was conducted for the suspect vehicle with the assistance of air support from East Bay Regional Park Police. The suspects are still outstanding.

The officer was transported to the hospital where he received treatment for a non-life threatening injury and was released. No one else was injured during these incidents.

The suspects are described as three to four males wearing dark masks and all dark clothing. This is the only description we have of the suspects. They are considered armed and dangerous. Anyone with further information regarding this incident is encouraged to contact the Pleasanton Police Department at (925) 931-5100.
