Pleasanton Police Department Welcomes Police Officer & Community and Public Relations Coordinator

The City of Pleasanton and the Pleasanton Police Department are excited to welcome Police Officer Justin Qualle, and Community and Public Relations Coordinator Teri Yan. Officer Qualle is a lateral officer from the Ripon Police Department and was sworn in in a special ceremony Wednesday morning at the Pleasanton Police Department.

Teri Yan is a Bay Area native and graduated from California High in San Ramon. She earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in Radio and Television from San Francisco State University. During her career, she has worked in the marketing department for news agencies such as KTVU FOX2 and FOX23 in Tulsa, Oklahoma. Most recently, Teri worked for the San Francisco Police Department and spent three and a half years producing digital content targeting officers and the public.

Officer Qualle was born in Stockton and raised in Ripon, California. He graduated summa cum laude from California State University Stanislaus with a Bachelor of Arts in Criminal Justice. Justin became interested in a career in law enforcement after being hit by a drunk driver when he was in the fourth grade. The incident made Justin appreciate the care and service provided by the first responders along with the members in the medical field. He wanted to become a Police Officer so he could help others in need no matter what the circumstances.

Justin graduated from the San Joaquin Delta College POST Intensive Academy in February 2017 and soon after was hired as a Reserve officer by the Ripon Police Department. He ultimately earned a full-time position and within a year received the American Legion's POST 190 Officer of the Year Award.

Both Teri Yan and Officer Justin Qualle are thrilled to be working for the City of Pleasanton and look forward to serving the Pleasanton community.
