Pleasanton Police Department Welcomes New Police Dispatcher and Records Clerk

The City of Pleasanton and the Pleasanton Police Department are excited to welcome police dispatcher Sydney Ruegsegger and records clerk Dori Tafoya.

Sydney Ruegsegger joins Pleasanton Police Department after working as a police dispatcher for Oakland Police Department since 2018. She began her career in law enforcement as a cadet for Oakland PD in 2014. Ruegsegger grew up in Pleasanton and graduated from Amador Valley High School in 2012.

Before joining Pleasanton PD, Dori Tafoya spent seven years with Foster City Police Department as a records specialist and community service officer. Prior to that, she worked for the Contra Costa County Sheriff's Department as a records clerk, and the Santa Clara County Sheriff's Office as a correctional officer. She is a graduate of Westmont High School in Campbell, California.

"We look forward to having such experienced individuals as part of our department," said Pleasanton Police Department's Support Services Manager Megan Wilske, "and they both bring a wealth of knowledge which adds great value to our team."

For more information about employment opportunities, please contact Pleasanton PD's Personnel and Training at (925) 931-5210.
