Far Western Swim Meet Coming to Dolores Bengtson Aquatic Center, Pleasanton

WHO: The Pleasanton Seahawks will be the host-team for the upcoming Far Western Swim Meet.

WHAT: Far Western Swim Meet featuring swimmers from all over the United States, Canada, and Mexico.

WHERE: Dolores Bengtson Aquatic Center
4455 Black Avenue
Pleasanton, CA

WHEN: Thursday, March 31, 2016 through Sunday, April 3, 2016
6 a.m. – 8 p.m. daily

WHY: The Far Western Swim Meet draws approximately 1,500 swimmers, ages 10 – 18 years old. Qualified swimmers from out of state and from outside the U.S. will be competing in one of the fastest 18 and under swim competitions in the country. Some swimmers hope to achieve Olympic trial cuts.

Expect traffic delays. Participants have been encouraged to carpool. Overflow parking for the event on Saturday and Sunday is offered at Gingerbread Preschool, Alisal Elementary School, and Amador Valley High School. Parking at those sites will be off limits while school is in session.
