

LIFE

After High School

In this presentation, you will:

- Hear straight from our panel of high school and college students what their challenges are, how they define success and the solutions and tips they've identified that support them best.
- Learn about the three areas students struggle with the most during their high school years, particularly as it relates to college plans.

On the Edge of Coaching believes the awareness, insights and clarity gained through the coaching process allows you to break through the obstacles, beliefs and behaviors that keep you from realizing your dreams.
