PLEASANTON PD INVITES COMMUNITY FOR FREE ICE CREAM

In partnership with the iconic Meadowlark Dairy, the City of Pleasanton and Pleasanton Police Department invite the community to join them for “Cone with a Cop” on Wednesday, May 31 from 2 p.m. - 5 p.m. at 57 W. Neal Street. We are excited to present this family-friendly event, which allows attendees to chat with members of the police department, learn about safety and security, and share in the festivities. Last year, members of Meadowlark Dairy and Pleasanton Police Department distributed more than 1,800 cones.

“In collaboration with Meadowlark Dairy, we’re proud to offer this wonderful opportunity to connect with our community while enjoying a cone of ice cream,” said Chief David Swing.

Each attendee will receive one free cone during the event. Tokens are not required. To avoid traffic, attendees are encouraged to walk or bike. A portion of Railroad Ave (between Division & Neal St) will be closed to vehicles from Noon – 5:30 p.m.
