Update: Victim Identified After Shooting Homicide

The Pleasanton Police Department continues its investigation into the fatal shooting that occurred on Friday, August 15, 2025, near the 4600 block of Helpert Court. Lucas Chan, a 28-year-old Pleasanton resident, was arrested for killing his 61-year-old father, Lance Chan. Preliminary witness accounts indicate that the shooting was preceded by a verbal dispute.

Following the removal of improvised explosive devices by the Alameda County Sheriff's Explosive Ordnance Disposal Team, and in accordance with protocol, the Pleasanton Police Department has also partnered with the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives (ATF). The ATF is involved due to the recovery of the explosives, as well as additional evidence, including a 3D printer and multiple "ghost guns." Currently, there is no known threat to public safety. The investigation is ongoing, and no further details are available.

If you or anyone you know has information about this case, please call (925) 931-5100.

NOTE: Information about the suspect's age has been corrected. The suspect was incorrectly identified as a 29-year-old Pleasanton resident; he is 28 years old.
