Man in Custody After Shooting Pleasanton Resident

The Pleasanton Police Department is investigating a shooting that occurred following a dispute at a residence in the 3600 block of Vineyard Avenue at approximately 3:00 PM on July 26, 2025. At the home, officers located a 71-year-old male suffering from multiple gunshot wounds. The victim, a Pleasanton resident, was transported to a local trauma center where he is being treated for life-threatening injuries. A 50-year-old male suspect, Joshua Kaplan, is currently in police custody, and this is believed to be an isolated event. There is no threat to public safety.

The relationship between the involved parties and the circumstances surrounding this shooting are still being determined. No further information will be released at this time, as the investigation is ongoing.
