PLEASANTON OFFERS TWO FREE COMMUNITY EDUCATION WORKSHOPS ON TECHNOLOGY
Top 10 Tips for Technology & Technology & Our Kids

Pleasanton, CA— The City of Pleasanton's FREE Community Education Series continues with two special workshops on technology and kids on Wednesday, October 21, 2015 at the Pleasanton Public Library in the large meeting room, located at 400 Old Bernal Ave. One of the workshops is geared towards students, while the other is designed for parents.

The workshop schedule is as follows:

- Top 10 Tips for Technology—STUDENT WORKSHOP (from 4:00 p.m. – 5:00 p.m.) Students are invited to participate in a panel discussion about the best apps, tools and technology. Panelists will include Pleasanton Unified School District (PUSD) high school students, PUSD Technology Coaches and the Pleasanton Police Department's School Resource Officer. The event is FREE and registration is recommended. Go to pleasantonfun.com and enter course code #61122.

- Technology & Our Kids—PARENT WORKSHOP (from 7:00 p.m. – 8:30 p.m.) Parents will hear from the PUSD Technology Coaches and the Pleasanton Police Department about how to navigate in a digital world and how to keep their kids safe online. This event is also FREE and registration is also recommended. Go to pleasantonfun.com and enter course code #61123.

The Community Education Series was developed by the Community Services staff in conjunction with the Pleasanton Youth Commission to meet the goals of the Youth Master Plan.
