Pleasanton Police Department Welcomes New Officer

PLEASANTON, Calif. – The City of Pleasanton and the Pleasanton Police Department are excited to welcome Nickolas Skaggs as Pleasanton’s newest police officer. Officer Skaggs was sworn in on Wednesday, October 10, 2018 in a special badge pinning ceremony that took place at the Police Department. Competing in a very challenging selection process, Nickolas participated in multiple interviews, medical and psychological examinations, and an in-depth background investigation. Officer Skaggs possesses a stellar work history and solid communication skills.

Officer Skaggs is a lateral Police Officer from the Campbell Police Department where he has worked for the last three years. He was raised in San Ramon, California and graduated from California High School. Nickolas attended California State University, East Bay earning a Bachelor’s degree in Criminal Justice Administration with a concentration in law enforcement.

Officer Skaggs has expressed his excitement to begin his service to the citizens of Pleasanton and is thankful for the opportunity to have achieved getting his “dream job”. He will undergo a sixteen-week training period before patrolling Pleasanton on his own.
