Contra Dancing with Bob Carragher

PLEASANTON, Calif. —The Pleasanton Library announces an afternoon of contra dancing. Similar to square dancing and Scottish country dancing with a live caller, with origins dating back to the 17th century, contra dancing is a folk dance made up of long lines of couples.

WHO: Bob Carragher, contra dance caller and instructor
WHAT: Enjoy an afternoon of contra dance instruction and fun. Appropriate for adults and children 10 and older.
WHERE: Pleasanton Public Library (400 Old Bernal Avenue)
WHEN: Sunday, December 16, 2018, 2 – 4 p.m.
WHY: For all to enjoy happy interactions with other dancers! Elegant, energetic and fun couple line dances. No dance experience or partner necessary.

For more information please contact Yu Tao, Senior Librarian at 925-931-3410.
