Police Explorers

Pleasanton Police
Explorer Post #836

The Pleasanton Police Explorer Post offers young men and women a hands-on experience in law enforcement.

Participants engage in bi-weekly meetings, community events, field trips, and trainings with officers, which help them develop leadership, self-confidence, and explore a career in policing.

Explorers serve their community and gain experience through ride-alongs, trainings, and volunteer events.

This year-round program also includes opportunities to interact with other Explorer Posts statewide at competitions and an Explorer police academy.

Receive Training In:

- General Police Procedures
- Laws of Arrest
